| 19          | DPAC Office of Aboriginal Affairs and Family     | June 2015  | Dolly Dalrymple and Thomas Johnson Memorial, Railton Road | Dolly Dalrymple – 1808-1864
Generously funded by DPAC Office of Aboriginal Affairs, and family.
Dolly was an aboriginal woman who married Thomas Johnson, a pardoned convict, and together they raised a family with present day descendants surviving. Dolly and Thomas resided at Sherwood Hall, which was re-located to Bells Parade approximately 20 years ago, and a memorial to their memory now stands on the original site on the Railton Road, Latrobe. They were a prominent family of the time and contributed to the development of the area. |
